

PPLC AGENDA MOCKUP FOR OCTOBER 2024 MEETING

MC: TBD

SECRETARY: Leah Bronner

UPDATES:

Peter:

- Oxbow update
- Lamoille County Community Resilience Post Flooding Forum Staging Meeting
- Other

Denise:

- Shady Woodland planting

Melissa:

- Bee balm seed available
- Seeding and planting under power lines (article)
- Holly, Owner of The Farm Between in Jeffersonville, reached out to attend PPLC meetings and offered use of space post grant. Contact: Holly, thefarmbetween.com, 802-335-2000.

Martha:

- MACC, bee balm seed sewing
- Eden Shoreline project review

Deb: 2024-2025 garden tour thoughts

ACTIVITIES:

- Plants for rain garden bioretention area, Prospect St. in Hyde Park
- Grant for Projects – VCRD's
  - Climate Catalyst Innovation Fund

OTHER BUSINESS:

- Meeting for November 2024: Any items for agenda
- December meeting – no meeting

- Erika Shaper, LCSWD Outreach Coordinator – ask about relevance of joining

Winter Speaker Series:

1. Leslie Spencer, Gund Institute Graduate Fellow, UVM - Bees and Pollinators what we can learn and apply as we watch them in our gardens.
2. Desiree Narango, VT Center for Ecostudies, possible referral for a speaker to communicate the results of her research, making informed plant selections for greater biodiversity
3. Tobiah Schulman, Bird and Bee Native Plants Jericho, Tobi, is extremely knowledgeable about plants and shares her expertise on growing and cultivating natives for VT landscapes.

2025 Events Calendar:

- Roctoberfest (October)
- VT Pumpkin Chucking Festival (September)
- Hyde Park Old Home Day (September), etc.

Positions to be filled at PPLC:

- Web page PPLC coordinator – Ask if any interested members. Should we advertise for high school/college student or apply for funds? Suggestions by Stephanie Zuccarello/Leah Bronner?
- Back-up secretary to take notes of meetings – Ask if interested members.